On September 16, the City Council authorized the Economic and Workforce Development Department (EWDD) to release the LA BusinessSource Centers Request for Proposal (RFP). In addition to general City eligibility requirements, interested BusinessSource Center applicants must have at least two years of direct or related experience providing training, instruction, technical assistance, consulting and access to capital to microenterprises and small businesses. More information on the scope of services can be found in Section II.C. of the RFP. The RFP is posted online at the following locations:

EWDD's website: <http://ewddlacity.com/index.php/about-ewdd/bid-opportunities>

Los Angeles Business Assistance Virtual Network (LABAVN):

EWDD is eager to receive applications from a variety of eligible applicants. Your organization has been identified as a potentially interested stakeholder or applicant. As such, EWDD requests your consideration of the LA BusinessSource Center. The RFP is open to all eligible responders and EWDD encourages you to forward notification of this RFP to potential interested partners, applicants, or other stakeholders.

EWDD will host a Proposers Conference for all interested applicants on Tuesday October 6, 2015, 10 am to 12 pm, 1200 W. 7th Street, 6th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90017.
